

Minor in History

Any student may take a minor in history. A minor consists of any 15 hours of courses in history. Six hours should be chosen from the following introductory courses: HIST 101, 102, 104, 105, 106, 108, 152, 153, 179, 180, 271, and 272. A minimum of 9 hours should be selected from other history courses at the 300 – or 400-level. Students are advised to design their own history minor to complement studies in their major. Only those grades of “C” or better can be applied to this minor.
