

CHEM 233: Organic Chemistry I

Fall 2004

Lec. 002, CRN# 80226

Instructor: Dr. M. Richards-Babb (Dr. Babb)
Phone: 293-3435 Ext 6416
e-mail: mrichar2@wvu.edu website: www.chem.wvu.edu/chem15.Babb
Office: 404B Clark Hall

Office Hours: M (11:30AM-12:30PM & 1:30-2:30PM); W (11:30AM-12:30PM); and Th (10:00-11:00AM);. Other times by appointment.

Lecture: Section 002 (M, W, F - 10:30-11:20 AM) Clark Hall Room 101

Laboratory: You should be enrolled in CHEM 235 concurrently with CHEM 233. You are not permitted to take CHEM 235 before CHEM 233 without approval. CHEM 235 laboratory WILL be held during the first week of classes. If you do not show up for the first laboratory, you may be administratively dropped from the class list.

Required

Materials: Organic Chemistry, 6th ed., John McMurry.

Molecular Models: by S.D. Darling (Available from ACS Student Affiliates). These kits will be sold prior to CHEM 235 lab during the second or third week of classes. Please note that models cannot be used during exams.

Recommended

Material: Study Guide and Student Solutions Manual, to accompany the text.

Exams: Three exams will be given on Thursday evenings from 7-8:30 PM. Exam locations will be announced prior to the first exam. A comprehensive final exam will be given according to the university schedule and based on class meeting time.

Date	Exam
Thurs., Sept. 23	Exam #1
Thurs., Oct. 14	Exam #2
Thurs., Nov. 11	Exam #3
Fri., Dec. 17	Final Exam (11 AM-1 PM)

Exam Regrading: If you believe an error has been made in grading an exam, you must give the unaltered exam to the instructor within 24 hours from the time it was returned. If you request regrading of a specific question, not only that question but the entire exam will be re-graded by the instructor. As a result, your score could increase, decrease, or remain the same.

Academic

Dishonesty: A full range of options is available to the instructor in the event of a discovery of academic dishonesty. These options are stated in the West Virginia University Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, and include dismissal from school or assignment of an unforgivable "F" for a course grade. These options will be vigorously enforced.

Make-ups: Make-up exams will only be given in the case of serious illness or emergency. A request for a make-up must be accompanied by a written excuse from the Dean of Student Life (E. Moore Hall, 293-5611). If you will be out of town on university business, you must submit documentation before your trip. All requests for make-up exams must be arranged within three days of the scheduled date.

Calculation of Grade: My object is to give you the best possible grade which can be justified by your achievement in the course. The final grade will be based on the scores of the three exams (22% each) and the final examination (34%).

Problems and Questions: At the end of each chapter in the text are numerous questions and problems. Specific problems related to the material covered in lecture will be assigned from each chapter. Although the problem assignments will not be collected and graded, they should help you understand the various concepts in lecture and thereby prepare you for the examinations. Answers to many of these problems can be found in the back of your textbook and/or solutions manual.

Attendance: Attendance will be taken during each lecture. Attendance is strongly encouraged and may be used in determining each student's final letter grade.

West Virginia University is committed to social justice. I concur with that commitment and expect to foster a nurturing learning environment based upon open communication, mutual respect, and non-discrimination. Our University does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, age, disability, veteran status, religion, sexual orientation, color or national origin. Any suggestions as to how to further such a positive and open environment in this class will be appreciated and given serious consideration.

If you are a person with a disability and anticipate needing any type of accommodation in order to participate in this class, please advise me and make appropriate arrangements with Disability Services (293-6700).

West Virginia University recognizes the diversity of its students, many of whom must be absent from class to participate in religious observances. Students must notify their instructors by the end of the third class meeting regarding religious observances that will affect attendance. Further, students must abide by the attendance policy of their instructors as stated on their syllabi. Faculty will make reasonable accommodation for tests or field trips that a student misses as a result of religious observance.
