It is Never Too Late

Love has always been a double edged weapon; while love can lead to happy and comfortable life, it can also leads to sorrow and regret. There are many things in our daily life that we don't appreciate until we feel the danger of losing it. Sarah Connor portrayed the periods and stages that the lover goes through and the sorrow and pain accompanied with losing one's love in her song "from Sarah with love." The song is so romantic and emotional that it touches my soul every time I hear it and Sarah's performance was magnificent.

In the first verse, Sarah Connor sings: "I thought you were not my kind/ I thought that I could never feel for you/ the passion and love you were feeling", this showed how she was ignorant at the beginning and how Sarah couldn't confront her feeling toward her lover. After that, the songs went over the period when she discovered that she lost her love and she couldn't live without telling him her true emotions, which is obvious in the lines that stated: " She took your picture to the stars above/ and they told her it is true/ she could dare to fall in love with you."

Furthermore, Sarah sings: "But so many tears in the rain/ Felt the night you said/ that love had come to you" which indicate that crying at that time has no value or meaning as it's too late. Sarah also sang about how sometimes she never found the words to say and couldn't express her feelings out to the person she love. This kind of feelings which comes when you lost the thing you love is often one of the most truthful and real emotions a person can experience.

In the second verse, Sarah Connor went to the next period where she showed the hope of getting back together and how regretful she is. People often hang to the last hope and tries to fight for it by doing what ever they can do, "So maybe the chance for romance/ is like a train to catch before it's gone/ and I'll keep on waiting and dreaming" Sarah said. Then in the last chorus Sarah raises her voice and scream to show her anger from herself and the sorrow she is living with by saying: " She's gotta know what you are thinking of/ 'cause every little now and then/ and again and again/ I know her heart cries out for you."

At the end of the song, Sarah released her last hope when she sings: "So don't make me blue when I write to you/ from Sarah with love." She really wanted her lover to consider her letter, song, as a truthful confession of her regrets and sadness of losing him. Moreover, she wanted him to consider her feeling because of their friendship and wish that he will not let her down and try to come back to her.

Finally, I think that Sarah Connor did a very nice job in illustrating and portraying the situation of the person who lost his/her lover. Furthermore, the song went over the different stages and emotions this person goes through. The combination of the performance and the pace was well suited to the theme and the subject of the song. The song transports smoothly from the audience ear and goes directly to touch his/her soul.

"From Sarah With Love"

[Verse 1:]

For so many years we were friends
And yes I always knew what we could do
But so many tears in the rain
Felt the night you said
That love had come to you
I thought you were not my kind
I thought that I could never feel for you
The passion and love you were feeling
And so you left
For someone new
And now that you're far and away
I'm sending a letter today

[Chorus:]

From Sarah with love
She'd got the lover she is dreaming of
She never found the words to say
But I know that today
She's gonna send her letter to you

From Sarah with love
She took your picture to the stars above
And they told her it is true
She could dare to fall in love with you
So don't make her blue when she writes to you
From Sarah with love

[Verse 2:]

So maybe the chance for romance
Is like a train to catch before it's gone
And I'll keep on waiting and dreaming
You're strong enough
To understand
As long as you're so far away
I'm sending a letter each day

[Chorus]

[Last chorus:]

From Sarah with love
She'd got the lover she is dreaming of
She never found the words to say
But I know that today

She's gonna send her letter to you

From Sarah with love
She's gotta know what you are thinking of 'Cause every little now and then
And again and again
I know her heart cries out for you

From Sarah with love
She'd got the lover she is dreaming of
Never found the words to say, ahh
But today, but today...

From Sarah with love
She took your picture to the stars above
And they told her it is true
She could dare to fall in love with you
So don't make her blue when she writes to you
From Sarah with love

[Coda:]

So don't make me blue when I write to you
From Sarah with love
