New Course: French 293

How French Works . . .

One-hour course in English on:
- Elements of French and Francophone culture
- The sounds and images of the French-speaking world: art, music, film . . .
- Basics of the French language
- Professions and fields of study related to French

This course is for you if any or all of these apply:
- You’re curious about things French, but don’t know much yet
- You’re looking for a quick French intro or refresher
- You’re already in a French class and would like a little back-up as you go along
- You’re thinking of an internationally oriented major or minor that opens up a whole world of opportunities

Fall 2003, Wednesdays 3:30 to 4:20 pm
FRCH 293A, CRN 85443
No previous French required / Multiple choice tests only
Instructor: Dr. Michael Lastinger, mlasting@wvu.edu