Grading Criteria for Proposal Presentations

Molecular Ecology
Fall 2006

1. Quality of presentation (5 points)
   a. Slides are well-organized and clear
   b. Pace is appropriate
   c. Speaking voice is clearly discernible
   d. Stays within time limit (I will stop you at 10 minutes, with a 2 minute warning)

2. Content of presentation (10 points)
   a. Ideas are clearly and logically presented
   b. Objectives of proposed research are stated at beginning and continuously referenced
   c. Methods are appropriate and follow logical progression
   d. Expected results follow from methods
   e. Significance and impact of work are made apparent

3. Responses to Questions (5 points)
   a. Responses are clear, concise, and thorough