

Lectures 4-5

Coriolis Effect

Apparent curvature in the direction of travel of a body moving over a spinning object.

For winds and ocean currents, it's caused by latitudinal differences in the rotational speed of Earth.

4

Understanding the Coriolis Effect via YouTube

Check out this video:

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mcPs_OdQOYU

