

STORYTELLING EVENT

JoAnn Dadisman, a native of West Virginia, is a member of the English faculty at West Virginia University and a member of the State Storytelling Guild. She is a featured teller and workshop presenter at the annual state storytelling festival. On October 18, JoAnn will be telling true tales, legends and ghost tales from our region that blend historical accounts with the element of folklore. The tales are appropriate for children and adults.

Please come join us for an evening of storytelling!
